

doing so he fell into the sea and was drowned,
 The city itself surrendered in October, and during the siege Roger also reduced Girgenti. In turn Castrogiovanni, Butera, and Noto surrendered, the last, in 1091, sending offers of surrender to Mifcto, from whence the Count despatched Jordan lo occupy the citadel and impose an annual tribute, The last native prince, Hamud of Costrogiovanni, was content to embrace Christianity and retire to a rich fief in Calabria, Finally fleet carried him to his last triumph; in 1091 he to Malta and Gozo, whose people hia suzerainty and pledged themselves to an annual tribute,

By 1091, Roger was lord of Sicily and governiHl it from his capital of Messina or Troina. I Hiring the conquest he had loyally ctsiisithl GuttKwrti in the twenty. years following the investiture iti Melfi, during which the last of iht* LomtwrU awl native states fell and the Greeks wwe i'mally expelled.

In 1058, the city of Capua had yit*)dw! to Richard but on. terms which left the citi&mK tho control of the gates and forttrtm Tlu» ro»t wf the duchy itself was steadily absorbed by

th? Nonium;
at the end of 1063 he was niaatw of | ffatii«i% nil its territory from Gaftta 8outhward».mpit«l Tint became his leading object; he ftunrnumed it In March, 1062, to surrender the ami the fortress to him; the ant!
Kuftemla
siege in which they showed a revolution worthy of